

Auxiliary Personnel

Kaan Vardal

Physical Education Teacher

He started his undergraduate education at Istanbul Gedik University, Faculty of Sport Sciences, Department of Coaching in 2012. He completed his internship in England in 2015 with the "Adapted Physical Activity" diploma education he received at Haaga-Helia University in Finland through Erasmus exchange program in 2014. In 2016, He worked part-time in Istanbul Gedik University's "I'm Active in the Society" project for individuals with special needs. He took part in events involving individuals with special needs during his university education process and participated in relevant scientific congresses. He graduated from university in 2016 with the first degree in his department. After his graduation he started his career as a physical education teacher at the Integrated Physical Activity Center "We Are Active, We Are in the Society" in the project carried out by Istanbul Gedik University for individuals with special needs between 2016 and 2019